Making a Great School Greater

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

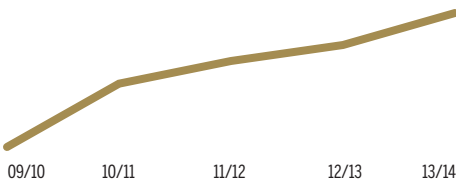

has become an important part of learning. It can promote positive interactions with teachers and peers while establishing moral guidelines for young minds. The integration of social responsibility in education not only advances social, cultural and ecological causes, but it can also foster conflict resolution and character development.

FROM THE CHAIR | PATRICK WILLIAMS

Dear Friends of The Epiphany School,

My children tell me that their teachers advise them to be careful of Wikipedia, that it is not always truthful. However, I believe that the website is on track with the following definition of “social responsibility:”

“Social responsibility is an ethical framework, which suggests that an entity, be it an organization or individual, has an obligation to act for the benefit of society at large.”

This statement helps to position us as a Foundation representing you, the community, in all of our obligations to The Epiphany School. We ensure that the school is affordable for New Yorkers of many different social backgrounds. This gives us all a sense of place and a safe knowledge that we are doing the best for our children and our community by working with the Catholic Church to ensure a great education.

Because of that support, we are able to do long term planning. The Epiphany School has been able to rely on the Foundation to raise funds that enrich our children’s educational experience and our faculty’s teaching environment. Because of that financial support, tuition has been kept at a level that enables a cross section of families to send their children here.

By building on the past, sustaining excellence in the present and investing in the future, the Foundation will continue to work on behalf of current and future students. We thank our supporters and look forward to many years of continued growth!

So a huge thanks you to all of you for continuing to make this great school greater. Parents, friends and alumni — take a bow and keep engaged.

Sincerely,

Patrick Williams

Chair, The Epiphany School Foundation

EPIPHANY'S ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER

Allison Onofrio
Upper School Science Teacher,
Head of the Environmental Center

The Environmental Center adds a key component to the science curriculum by giving the students the opportunity to take control of their own learning. Students are not always aware of the impacts that they, as humans, have on the environment. An act as simple as throwing out a piece of food at lunch can have repercussions. We want them to see the cycles in nature and we want them to be a part of those cycles by making good decisions. Rather than throwing away that plastic bottle or apple core, how can we use it to benefit other living things?

It's great to see them come into school in the morning and immediately rush to the EC. They water their plants, they say "hi" to the fish, and they continue on with their day. In class they have so many questions! They want to know why all that equipment is there and what it does, and how they can be involved in the process. They might ask me why the water turns yellow in a fish tank, and rather than give them the answer I tell them to think about it! What's actually going on in there? How can we fix it? Ultimately, that curiosity is what we want to build not only in environmental science, but in all parts of their lives.

"THE ENVIRONMENTAL CENTER IS REALLY FUN AND IT HELPS US TO LEARN ABOUT HOW PLANTS AND ANIMALS RELY ON EACH OTHER IN OUR ENVIRONMENT."

Michael Incitti - 6th grade

THE 4TH ANNUAL WALK + CATHOLIC CHARITIES FEEDING OUR NEIGHBORS FOOD DRIVE

was held on Sunday, October 20, 2013. Once again, The Epiphany School teamed up with the Catholic Charities Feeding Our Neighbors food drive campaign on a combined mission to strengthen the community while continuing to sustain excellence in Catholic education. The amount of food collected equated to over 5,000 meals, which was 25% more in comparison to the previous year — a great achievement! This year, we ended the Walk route at the 22nd Street school location where we held our very first Fall Festival! The schoolyard and streets were set up with many different activities, including pumpkin decorating, face painting, arts & crafts, cupcake decorating, as well as delicious food and refreshments for kids and adults. We had a great turnout, perfect weather, and all in all was a wonderful day that brought the Epiphany community together! The 2013 Chairs were Pam Felenstein and Kathleen Lane.

THE ANNUAL SPRING AUCTION

was held at the elegant New York Athletic Club on Central Park South for the third year in a row. The auction, which is the Foundation's largest fundraiser, was on Wednesday, March 26, 2014, and pulled in yet another record number! As always, the night was well attended, the venue was beautifully decorated and the items available for bidding were spectacular. The 2014 Co-Chairs were Meenakshi Hilaire and Claire Pezeu.

Chairs: Ed Pinter and John Sowarby

is the longest running fundraising event of our school and was held at the prestigious Wykagyl Country Club on May 19, 2014. Our 115 golfers, which included parents, friends and alumni, enjoyed a beautiful day out on the links. The fun continued with a night of cocktails, hors d'oeuvres, dinner, raffles and a live auction. For the first time, Epiphany was given the opportunity to have Hyundai as a sponsor for our outing. They offered great prizes, including a full expense paid trip for the top two players in our tournament to attend the Hyundai Invitational National Final at Cascata Golf Course in Las Vegas! The 2014 Golf Committee included Ed Pinter, Anthony Rapillo and John Sowarby.

IT IS WITH GREAT SADNESS that we mourn the passing of a true champion for The Epiphany School and The Epiphany School Foundation, James P. Capuano, '73. The Capuano family has a long-standing legacy at The Epiphany School with three generations of alumni, including most recently his four children. Jimmy was very devoted to The Epiphany School Foundation, serving on the Board of Trustees from 2008-2014 and as Chair from 2009-2012. His leadership, dedication, strength and sense of humor will be greatly missed.

125TH ANNIVERSARY ALUMNI CELEBRATION AND HALL OF FAME COCKTAIL RECEPTION

Last year marked 125 years since The Epiphany School first opened its doors in 1888. To commemorate this incredible accomplishment, we held the 125th Anniversary Alumni Celebration and Hall of Fame Cocktail Reception at The Yale Club on Saturday, November 2, 2013. Over 210 Epiphany School alumni, parents, faculty, family and friends joined us that night as we inaugurated our three first honorees into the Hall of Fame. The three individuals, James L. Hayes (Principal, 1978-present), Sister Rebecca Tayag, SSND (Educator, 1978-present) and Angelo (AJ) Pino (Class of '82 and Board Trustee, 2010-present) were all honored for their significant contributions to the school. To top off the night, Mr. Hayes was presented with a proclamation from Mayor Michael Bloomberg acknowledging the momentous occasion and hereinafter declaring November 2, 2013 as "The Epiphany School Day." The 2013 Chair was parent and Epiphany alum, Kristin Shea, '78.

The Epiphany School and The Epiphany School Foundation

The Epiphany School was founded in 1888 to provide the highest quality education to the school-age children of The Epiphany Parish. Today, the school educates approximately 565 students, serving a diverse socio-economic population, who live in all areas of Manhattan and the outer boroughs. We remain committed to education of the highest quality and are guided by our mission: to educate the whole child spiritually, intellectually, socially, emotionally and physically. Fundamental to this mission is developing children with a strong moral and ethical character who will contribute to society in meaningful ways.

The number of Catholic schools is dwindling. There were approximately 5.25 million students enrolled in Catholic schools nationwide in 1960. Today, that number has fallen to approximately 2 million children. In the last decade, 1,755 Catholic schools were closed or consolidated; New York City alone saw 27 Catholic schools close their doors after the 2011 school year. The reasons for the loss of these schools include lower enrollment, less financial support from the Church, fewer clergy members available to serve in unpaid positions, and quite simply, tuition that is too expensive for working families in today's economic climate.

The Epiphany School, though fiscally sound as compared to other Catholic schools in the area and nationwide, wanted to ensure its future. To sustain its educational excellence and to keep tuition at an affordable level, The Epiphany School Foundation was established in 1999 to raise funds for the school. This tax-exempt, charitable foundation was founded to enhance the children's educational experience and the faculty's teaching environment. These goals have been achieved over the years by funding programs that the school cannot cover through tuition alone. The Foundation remains dedicated to promoting growth and innovation through these programs.
